

IEUA-QNT is a union representing 17,000 teachers and school support staff working in non-government education across Queensland and the Northern Territory.

Applications are sought for the following full-time, ongoing position:

COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER

The duties of this full-time, ongoing position include:

- Producing union publications including researching, writing and editing content, conducting interviews and design.
- Creating regular audio visual content to assist and enhance our union's organising and campaigning, recruitment and membership activities, including video content.
- Assisting in maintaining and moderating our union's online presence including social media.
- Acting as a media liaison including writing and distributing media releases and maintaining our union's media contacts list.

Knowledge of the Adobe Creative Suite desirable but not essential. Training will be provided to the successful candidate as appropriate.

The position is based in Brisbane.

Graduates and recent graduates in communications, journalism or associated fields are encouraged to apply.

A salary package dependent on qualifications and experience will be determined.

As per our Reconciliation Action Plan, IEUA-QNT is committed to employment of, and encourages applications from, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander persons.

Applicants may download an information and application package at www.qieu.asn.au/vacancies

APPLICATIONS CLOSE: 4:00pm Monday, 18 February 2019

IEUA-QNT promotes a non-smoking lifestyle